Accommodation

Villa Des Indes Private Residence is made up of two colonial individual villas, Villa Des Indes I and II, which can be rented out as a 2, 3 or 5 bedroom residence. A small gangway and private entrances separate the two colonial villas.

Villa Des Indes I (3 bedroom/ max adults 6 (plus 3 additional using sofa beds in adjoining den libraries)

The Joglo is a centerpiece of Villa Des Indes I, an open-air living area that appears to be floating on water, surrounded by a 21-meter swimming pool. Two of the sleeping pavilions have wide verandahs and den-libraries full of interesting books, attached to the bedrooms. The third pavilion has an open upper level with adjacent butler's pantry and guest toilet.

Villa Des Indes II:(4 bedroom/max guests 4-6 (plus 2 children using sofa beds in adjoining den libraries or extra 2 adults using additional single rooms)

Within Villa Des Indes II there is a two bedroom pavilion in the same colonial style complete with outdoor Joglo fringed by a private swimming pool. Villa Des Indes II has a small gymnasium and two additional air conditioned bedrooms above the kitchen area which are suitable for guests with staff. Villa Des Indes II has an expansive lawn space which is perfect for weddings and other events. (150 seated/250 standing capacity).

Children

Children are welcome at Villa Des Indes. It's important to inform us of the age of children in advance as some antiques may need to be re-appropriated.

The Joglo

The skilled artisans of Demak in Central Java cleverly carved Joglo houses using traditional tongue and groove techniques, forgoing any use of nails in the design. Finely carved, the Joglo features finely carved pillars fluted with delicate floral patterns and symmetrical intricate layers of mandala style artwork in the ceiling.

The Joglos are a peaceful centerpiece of Villa Des Indes I and II, an open-air living area that appears to be floating on water, surrounded by a lagoon swimming pool that curves amidst the orchids and frangipanis. Complete with a table for fine dining set with antique cutlery and crockery, a relaxing lounge with plantation chairs in which you can while the evening away and comfortable corners to curl up in with an interesting book, the joglo typifies the best in tropical Asian luxury.

The Antiques

With passion for preserving and sharing the rich culture tapestry of Indonesia, the owners have an extensive collection of Balinese and Javanese antiques. One of the most delightful things about residing in Villa Des Indes is that there is always something fascinating to look at. The extensive collection is housed in Villa Des Indes in Bali. Having the privilege to not only view but also to be surrounded by these fascinating artifacts is a pleasure in itself. Each piece has its own story; the paintings by famous early artists, the old traveling desk with removable legs, and the more modern pieces such as the 1940's radio, weighing scales as well as numerous original Dutch East Indes travel posters.

Sailing

Enjoy a day trip to another island paradise aboard luxury sailing catamaran Aristocat. Nusa Lembongan and Penida are two stunning white sand tropical islands situated off Bali's southern coast. Experience village life and enjoy a sumptuous barbeque beachside and soak up all marine activities on offer or simply relax back in a hammock and take in the view.

Golf

Bali is a golfers dream island with a variety of world class 9 and 18 hole courses set against the most stunning scenery.

Bali Handara is the islands most well known golf course. Set 3700ft above sea level it's built in a volcano crater and is approximately 1 ½ hours drive from the south of the island. Magnificent mountain scenery with beautiful tropical gardens make for a fantastic day's golfing!

Scuba Diving

Indonesia is home to the world's most diverse species of marine life including most rarely sighting species such as mola mola (or sunfish), manta rays and a variety of unusual lesser spotted macro life. Dive sites vary from perfect locations for total beginners to adrenaline dives for the most experienced scuba diver.

Horse Riding

Riding a horse along the beach, splashing against the shoreline or trotting through Bali's lush emerald rice fields has to be the highlight of any horse lover's holiday. There are several stables throughout the island housing thoroughbreds, stock horses and ponies

Cultural Tours

They are private tours to suit every traveler throughout the archipelago. Sunset at Uluwatu temple including a traditional Kecak dance followed by a Jimbaran seafood dinner makes for an unforgettable night out or take a day trip up into the rice paddies of Ubud. Let us know your tastes and we can advise you on tours.

Shopping

Villa Des Indes is situated in the hear of stylish Seminyak, an area of unique designer boutiques. Bali is a shopper's delight, from the handcrafted wood and silverware, handmade batik's to the high-end fashion garments in exotic materials.
